

English Week Commencing 1st February 2021

This week we are creating our own stories about a child who goes back to the Stone Age.

Monday

Blue Challenge – Please read the story of Little Red Hen

Red Challenge – Research the Stone Age focusing on the fun things and difficult parts of living in the Stone Age.

Yellow Challenge – Think about what you have found out. How does life in the Stone Age and life today compare?

Green Challenge – What are the advantages and disadvantages of living the Stone Age compared to today?

Thursday

Blue Challenge – Please continue with work on Little Red Hen

Red Challenge - Complete the story planning sheet thinking carefully about each part.

Yellow Challenge – Once you have completed the planning sheet, edit and revise. How can you improve your planning?

Green Challenge – Use a thesaurus to find interesting adjectives for your story.

Friday

Blue Challenge – Complete the work on Little Red Hen.

Red Challenge – Write your story making sure all punctuation is correct. Remember to explain how your character falls into the Stone Age.

Yellow Challenge – Describe 3 things that happen to the character in your story.

Green Challenge – Use the adverbials list to help with your writing. Make sure you include some of these in your story.
