How many goats are there?

What are they wearing around their necks?

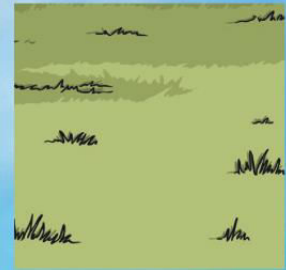

Match the words to the pictures.

Listen to the story then retell the story. You can cut the pictures out, muddle them up and then put them in order.

What do you think they could be thinking about?

Why do you think they are not smiling?

Echo reading - a grown up reads a few words at a time then the child copies.

"Who's that trip trapping over my BRIDGE!" yelled the troll.

The smallest Billy goat stopped and thought carefully for a moment. He needed to trick the troll fast, or he would soon be lunch!
