ALL ABOUT ELEPHANTS

Use these facts about elephants to answer the questions below.

The world's biggest land-living animal is the elephant.

There are two types of elephant: the African Elephant and the Indian (or Asian) Elephant.

African Elephant

Elephants eat plants, not meat. This means they are known as herbivores.

Male and female African Elephants have tusks but only the male Asian Elephant has tusks. They use their tusks for digging for water under the ground, scraping bark off trees and occasionally fighting.

The African Elephant is bigger than the Indian or Asian Elephant, with bigger ears. Its skin is grey and more wrinkly than the Indian Elephant's. African Elephants have two finger-like tips at the end of their trunks, whereas the Indian Elephant has one. The Indian Elephant's back is more rounded and humped.

Elephants' ears are large and thin. Flapping them helps to keep the elephant cool. They also enable elephants to hear each other's calls up to 5 miles away.

Tusks can be up to 3 metres long and they keep on growing for the whole of the elephant's life, which can be as long as 60-70 years.

Indian Elephant

Being so big and powerful, elephants have no real predators, although lions will sometimes pick on weak ones or babies, if they get the chance. The main threat is from ivory poachers.

An elephant uses its trunk (which can be 2 metres long) to lift up food, suck up water then pour it into its mouth. An adult needs to drink around 200 litres of water every day. It also uses it like a snorkel, holding its trunk above water when it is swimming.

Female elephants are called cows. They have babies (known as calves) when they are about 12 years old and they are pregnant for 22 months.

- What is the other name for an Indian Elephant?
Asian Elephant
- What does herbivore mean?
an animal that eats plants
- Which type of elephant does not have tusks?
the female Indian Elephant
- Write down two ways in which having large ears are useful to elephants.
Flapping their ears keeps elephants cool.
They enable elephants to hear each other's calls up to 5 miles away.
- The writer describes three ways that elephants use their tusks. What are they?
digging for underground water scraping bark off trees
occasionally fighting
- Compare African and Indian Elephants. Write A for African and I for Indian after these facts.

These elephants are bigger	A
These elephants have larger ears	A
Their skin is more wrinkly	A
Their trunk has one finger-like tip	I
They have a rounded back	I

THE CAMPING HOLIDAY

Here is a description of two children on holiday. If you read the sentences carefully, you should be able to fill in the gaps.

Myra and Will were on a camping holiday. They enjoyed sleeping outdoors in a tent. They woke up very early at sunrise / dawn to the sounds of the birds singing. They could also hear the sea not far away. So, even before they had eaten any breakfast, they decided to take a short walk / stroll through the woods and down to the sandy beach. The sun was just above the horizon and, at that time in the morning, they had the place all to themselves. First of all, they searched for crabs in the rock pools. Then they wandered slowly along the shoreline searching for flat stones / pebbles to skim across the waves. Having had no breakfast, they suddenly felt very hungry. They had enjoyed themselves so much that they decided to go back later / again / another time.

GETTING INTO SHAPE

Look at these shape poems. Underneath each one, write down why you think the writer wrote the poem the way he did.

The words fit the clothes. / The letters look as if they are being blown around. / All the words have to do with washing and clean clothes.

The words fit the shape of a snake. / They describe what a snake does and what it looks like. It looks as if it's as dangerous as the words used to describe it.

THE COMIC DINOSAUR

Shoreline, Isle of Skye Look, Hannah. A fossil. Could be a dinosaur's footprint. Are you sure, Joe?	Near a cave Look, Ewen is heading for the cave. Once I get my dinosaur costume on, I'll scare them to bits.
Outside the cave Ok, get ready. It looks as if Ewen has arrived.	Hey, Hannah, look at this baggy costume. How does he move its head?
Looking out to sea Your costume will get soaked, Ewen!	10 minutes later This dinosaur costume doesn't fit. I'm taking it back to the shop.

- The black boxes contain two sorts of information. What are they?

how much time has passed
- How do we know what Ewen is thinking?
His thoughts are contained in a thought bubble.
- In the third picture, why does Joe say: 'Get ready?'
He is expecting Ewen to appear in his costume. He is telling Hannah to get ready to pretend that they don't realise the dinosaur is Ewen.
- Why does Hannah say: 'How does he move its head?'
She is impressed by Ewen's costume. She is beginning to wonder how it can possibly look so lifelike.
- Think of someone who hasn't seen this comic. Write down for them what happens.
Joe and Hannah found some fossilised dinosaur footprints by the sea on the Isle of Skye.
Their friend, Ewen, thought he'd play a trick on them by dressing up as a dinosaur and scaring them.
When a real dinosaur appeared, Joe and Hannah thought it was Ewen. The real dinosaur wandered off along the shore.
When Ewen appeared, complaining that the dinosaur costume didn't fit, Joe and Hannah were speechless. They realised they'd just seen a real dinosaur.

BABY BEAR IN FAIRYTALE LAND

Baby Bear has just gone for a walk. See if you can work out the names of all the characters he talks about.

This is where I live with my mum and dad. Maybe you heard about the burglar who ate our porridge and broke my chair. When we went for a ramble in the woods, we met an oinking thing collecting sticks for his house. He said there were no bricks left. Round the corner, there was a hairy character with sharp teeth. He was out of breath. He complained about not being able to find Grandma's house. I don't know whose grandma. Down by the river, we crossed the bridge. Some ugly creature appeared and got into a rage about three animals making a terrible noise on its bridge. It went off when it saw the size of my dad. That's where I found the glass slipper. Mum has seen a young, cleaning woman in the village. Maybe it belongs to her. As our house came into view, a boy was in the middle of the path, swapping a cow for a bag of beans. I told him I didn't think it was worth it. When I entered our house, I was hoping my porridge would be cool. In fact, I was hoping it would still be there!

Using an apostrophe for possession

An apostrophe is used to show possession (that something belongs to somebody or something).

To show possession of a singular noun you add an apostrophe and an s at the end of the word. For example: the parrot's wings.

To show possession of a plural noun you either:

- add an apostrophe if the word ends in s. For example: the rats' tails.
- or add an apostrophe and then an s if the word does not end in s. For example: the men's swords.

Underline the correct form of the possessive noun:

- 1 Look at this! It is Egg's / Eggs' frying pan.
- 2 Don't lie there! It is Barnaby's / Barnabys' hammock.
- 3 All the rat's / rats' eyes were glowing red in the dark.
- 4 The buccaneers took the ladie's / ladies' jewellery.
- 5 The pirate's / pirates' boots were too big for me.
- 6 The captain stole the people's / peoples' gold.
- 7 The parrot's / parrots' beaks were bright red.
- 8 The parrot's / parrots' tail was green.
- 9 The children's / childrens' books were all about pirates.
- 10 The ship's / ships' cat lay asleep on the deck.

Using subordinate clauses

A clause is a group of words that contains a verb and its subject.

A main clause contains the main thought of the sentence and makes sense on its own.

A subordinate clause does not make sense on its own. It adds information to the main clause.

Draw lines between the matching main clause and subordinate clause.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 I have got a chest | before he had a wooden leg. |
| 2 He hasn't found his sea legs yet | while he was in jail. |
| 3 He was an honest man | because she wanted to become a pirate. |
| 4 He could climb to the top of the mast | though there's no treasure in it. |
| 5 She dressed up in mens' clothes | until he became a buccaneer. |
| 6 He lost a lot of weight | because he is still being sick. |

These subordinate clauses do not make sense on their own.

Write a main clause so that these subordinate clauses make sense.

- 7 any appropriate clauses which make when he was drinking in the tavern.
- 8 sense because he lost his eye in a fight.
- 9 until they fell asleep on the deck.
- 10 if you don't want to walk the plank.
- 11 even though the cat o' nine tails was worse.
- 12 while he was in the crow's nest.

On a separate piece of paper try writing the sentences with the subordinate clause first. Do they work just as well with the main clause at the end? Do they all make sense?

Add suffixes to the words below.

For my words you will need to double the final consonant.

- Add ing forget forgetting
- Add ed prefer preferred
- Add er begin beginner
- Add ed occur occurred

For words that have the last syllable unstressed you just have to add the suffix.

- Add ing garden gardening
- Add ed listen listening
- Add ing visit visiting
- Add ed limit limiting
