

Bradford

Location

Bradford is a large city situated in the county of Yorkshire in Northern England. Bradford is heaped with history and culture. It is a fantastic place to visit for so many reasons. Why not come and see for yourself?

Saltaire

If you want to learn about the history of Bradford, Saltaire (in North Bradford) is the place to visit.

Saltaire is named after Sir Titus Salt who built a textile mill and village for his workers. Come to enjoy the impressive architecture but also the shops and places to eat.

Saltaire is a World Heritage site and you can come to visit Salts Mill for free. Visit www.saltairevillage.com before you come to find out further information.

City Park

The city of Bradford has become even more beautiful since the renovations in 2012. City Park now boasts a mirror pool and a large area where markets and exhibitions are hosted. Centenary Square also has a number of restaurants, bars and a coffee shop.

Adam, an 8-year old Bradford resident explained, "I really love coming to City Park on a hot day to enjoy the fountains."
