reminders

Activity.

Look back at the list you made of things you can change about the world.

Decide on one thing you are going to make a pact about. Think about how often you would like to achieve your promise.

Write out your pact in fancy writing and decorate it. Now display it so you see it each day and it reminds you to keep your promise.

Mrs Starkey's pact.

I promise to pick up litter from my street once a month.

What is God's reminder that he will keep his promise?

What do people give each other at weddings to remind them of the promises they made to each other?

What could you have as a reminder to keep your pact?
