

Prediction

Whole Text

Week 6
Lesson 1

_____

_____

This is the title of this wee's text.
Try to guess the letters to work it out.

Here are some clues to help:

1

2

3

4

After work
title,
video inform competitor

(noun)

These competitors live in the ocean.

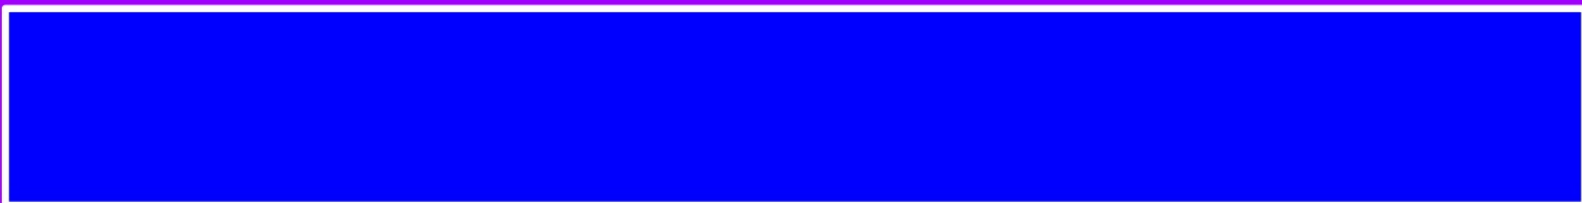

someone who takes part in a sporting contest

shoal
(noun)

Millions of sardines swim together in giant groups called shoals.

a large number of fish swimming together

herd (verb)

The dolphins try to herd thousands of sardines away from the main shoal.

to move in a group

Retrieval Questions

1. True or False: sardines can swim as fast as dolphins
2. What is a carnivore?
3. How big is the 'baitball'?

Complete the questions in your reading books.

Inference Questions

Week 6
Session 4

1. 'this can be the size of a tennis court'
Why does the author use this phrase?
2. Dolphins are intelligent animals. Do you agree?
Use evidence from the text to support your answer.

Try answering the inference questions in your reading books.