

Replace the Nouns

I can use pronouns and nouns.

Re-write these sentences.

Replace some of the nouns with pronouns to make them sound less repetitive or clumsy.

1. Sam hit out with the tennis racket, but Sam missed the tennis ball.

2. Mark asked Mark's friends if Mark could play.

3. The pilot said that the pilot had to make an emergency stop.

4. The children sulked angrily when the children were told off.

5. Anna loved listening to Anna's music.

Possessive Pronouns

6. This bike belongs to Beth - it is Beth's.

7. I think this pencil case belongs to Oscar because it looks like Oscar's.

Trickier Sentences

8. Susan picked up Susan's spanner and Susan carried the spanner into the garage.

9. Amina and Pierre drink lots of water because water keeps Amina and Pierre hydrated and water is good for Amina and Pierre.

1. Sam hit out with the tennis racket, but he/she missed the tennis ball.
2. Mark asked his friends if they could play.
3. The pilot said that he/she had to make an emergency stop.
4. The children sulked angrily when they were told off.
5. Anna loved listening to her music.
6. This bike belongs to Beth - it is hers.
7. I think this pencil case belongs to Oscar because it looks like his.
8. Susan picked up her spanner and she carried it into the garage.
9. Amina and Pierre drink lots of water because it keeps them hydrated and water is good for them.