

Castles

Castles were designed to keep the people inside safe and to stop enemies from getting in.

Castles have many features to stop people from attacking.

Why do you think a castle is a good place for a king or queen to live?

How were castles designed to keep people safe?

Castles were built from stone, why do you think this was a good material to use?

Castles

Castles were designed to keep the people inside safe and to stop enemies from getting in.

Castles have many features to stop people from attacking.

Why do you think a castle is a good place for a king or queen to live?

How were castles designed to keep people safe?

Castles were built from stone, why do you think this was a good material to use?